

Choose the correct Latin form for each underlined word or phrase.

Welcome, everyone, to the Level 2 Grammar test! May the odds be ever in your favor!

1. a. Salve b. Salvete c. Salvent d. Salveant
2. a. est b. sunt c. sint d. essent

Did you see that? I made a reference to the Hunger Games there.

3. a. Videsne b. Videtisne c. Vidimusne d. Vidistisne
4. a. hoc b. illud c. idem d. quid
5. a. ludi b. ludorum c. ludis d. ludos

Who says that all of the Latin exams need to be boring?

6. a. Cuius b. Quis c. Quid d. Quibus
7. a. est b. sunt c. esse d. fuisse

Now, don't hesitate to begin! Set out on your quest for victory!

8. a. ne dubita b. noli dubita c. nolite dubitate d. noli dubitare
9. a. proficisci b. proficiscere c. proficiscitur d. profectus esse

A Roman soldier traveling the Roman Empire will be your guide, today.

10. a. Roma b. Romanus c. Romanum d. Romana
11. a. est b. erat c. erit d. fuit

Our soldier begins in the winter on a long trip to Alexandria.

12. a. is b. noster c. suus d. vester
13. a. hiems b. hiemis c. hiemem d. hieme
14. a. Alexandria b. Alexandriae c. Alexandriam d. Alexandriā

The soldier named Gaius, kissed his wife and said goodbye before he left.

15. a. nomenis b. nomini c. nominem d. nomine
16. a. uxor b. uxoris c. uxorem d. uxore

His wife said, "Come home soon Gaius!"

17. a. domus b. domo c. domum d. domi
18. a. Gaius b. Gaie c. Gai d. Gaium

Soon Gaius departed from Rome with his close friend, Marcus.

19. a. Roma b. Romae c. Romam d. Romā
20. a. amicus b. amico c. amici d. cum amico

Although Gaius was walking more quickly than Marcus, he decided that he was worthy of the journey.

21. a. Marce b. Marci c. Marco d. Marcum
22. a. iter b. itineris c. itineri d. itinere

They had walked for 6 days, when they came to the port of Brundisium

23. a. Ambulant b. ambulabant c. ambulaverunt d. ambulaverant
24. a. sex dies b. sexto die c. sex dierum d. sex diebus

They found a sailor skilled in sailing during the winter on the rough seas.

25. a. peritus b. perita c. peritum d. peritam
26. a. navigandi b. navigandum c. navigandis d. navigare

The sailor, named Balbinus, says that the ship is prepared for departure.

27. a. navis b. navi c. navem d. navem
28. a. paratus est b. paratus c. parare d. paratam esse

As quickly as possible, they boarded the ship so that it could depart.

29. a. celerrime b. quam celerrime c. celerius d. celeriter
30. a. proficisitur b. proficisebatur c. profiscatur d. profisceretur

When leaving the port, they noticed that the boat was much longer than the rest.

31. a. longum b. longior c. longiorum d. longiorem
32. a. ceterae b. ceterarum c. ceteras d. ceteram

While the ship was sailing, a very large storm arose, which greatly shook the ship

33. a. navis navigans b. navem navigatam c. nave navigante d. navi naviganti
34. a. magis b. magnopere c. optime d. magniter

After the storm was finished, they proceed to keep sailing from the danger of the rocky coast.

35. a. perfectus b. perfecta c. perfectio d. perfectis
36. a. periculum b. periculo c. periculi d. periculis

Gaius asked the sailor, "When will we arrive at our destination?"

37. a. quando b. quo c. cur d. unde
38. a. perveniamus b. pervenimus c. perveniebamus d. pervenisse

The sailor responded rather briefly, "In three days we will be in Alexandria."

39. a. brevis b. breve c. brevius d. brevissime
40. a. tres dies b. in tres dies c. tribus diebus d. in tribus diebus

The two men are so bored that they think constantly about their families.

41. a. putant b. putent c. putarent d. putare
42. a. familiae b. familiarum c. familiis d. familias

When they could see Egypt, they felt a warm wind, which was pleasing to the weary men.

43. a. gratus b. grata c. gratum d. gratam
44. a. vis b. viris c. viri d. viros

Within in an hour, they had landed and Gaius had removed the baggage of the other man.

45. a. in una hora b. unā horā c. unam horam d. abhinc unam horam
46. a. alia b. alius c. alii d. alio

It was necessary for the travelers to meet their friends before dusk.

47. a. viatores b. viatorum c. viatoribus d. viatori
48. a. amici b. amicorum c. amicis d. amicas

The hosts asked the two what they wanted for dinner.

49. a. desiderant b. desiderarent c. desiderent d. desideraverunt

Their friends hoped that Marcus and Gaius would stay a long time!

50. a. manere b. mansisse c. mansuros esse d. mansurum iri