

Fellowship 7/30

Val calls meeting to order at 11:15 PM

Mr. Nifong gives certamen and others announcements

- Novice played amazingly well, but narrowly lost to Massachusetts
- Similarly, advanced team bested the favored team (GA) and could have tied OH, but it didn't go our way. Played with great heart and magnificent intelligence.
- Intermediate team, in one of the messiest and most contentious rounds of the day with lots of challenges, gnashing of teeth, etc. prevailed! Will face FL and GA tomorrow in finals.
  - Tomorrow morning in Stieren theater at 11:40ish
- Mr. Nifong offers congratulations for those who placed on tests
- Congratulations to Sophia for winning third in That's Entertainment
- Tomorrow we will learn about creative arts awards
- Reminder: $28!!!!!!
- No shenanigans tonight!

Announcements and miscellany led by Val

- Soccer got second place today
- Shout out from Jimmy to officers for making Instagram filters
- Shoutout from Dylan for third place in spirit today
- Shoutout from Sam Shipley for everyone who did well in academic tests
- Kael says she talked to someone from WI who said they thought IL spirit was always intense and they liked our thing
- Sidhu says that an SCLer said our spirit was the best
- Madeleine says shout out to IL for finally getting recognized for a motion in GA
- Val learned that she is physically unable to frown

Performance of Centipedes on Fire because it didn't get into That's Entertainment because it is very hard to explain. This secretary agrees.

Spirit tomorrow

- Tomorrow is the roman procession
- meet at magic stones
- we will not be judged while walking in (don't need to go all out on the way in), but there will be some media coverage so there is opportunity for hamming it up on camera
- Tomorrow's theme is Tiber riverwalk
  - our interpretation - wet look! hair gel!
- Sam Kurzydlo has a very complicated hair care question
- Sam Kurzydlo also wants to know whether one can wear swim trunks over or under a toga
- Review cheers

Human knot

Three of four groups prevail; one remains confused and tangled and eventually gives up.

Meeting adjourned at 11:50 PM
